

» Gerlinde Tippmann

- » Gerlinde Tippmann is Administrative Assistant to AVANA Invest GmbH management.
- » Ms. Tippmann has more than ten years of experience as an assistant/office manager at globally active high-tech companies. Furthermore, she has also obtained extensive experience at well-known real estate, insurance, travel, and financial services companies.
From 2005 to June of 2008, she worked as branch secretary for a specialist bank, processing problem credits for the area restructuring and settlement, and was also involved in the development of the marketing network in the financial association of the Volksbanks and Raiffaisen banks. In her most recent position, she acted as team assistant for the area capital investment controlling at an international financial services company.
- » Gerlinde Tippmann has completed two business programs in banking and the travel industry.